

Bio – Sasha Mullins Lassiter

Founder of Madison NOW! a community based organization back in 2012, however I left that organization to be run by other community members and founded Madison Community Alliance, a service to unite everyone in Madison as a united voice for community strategizing. Founded All Together Madison, a steering committee featuring 40+ stakeholders in Madison for the purpose of economic and community rejuvenation, reinvention, revitalization for Madison, TN, a little big town and working class neighborhood in Metro Nashville....

Madison is a jewel of an area in Metro Nashville.

Rich with music and art history, and legends of early pioneers, Madison is a unique area that is in the process of a great revitalization.

We are INclusive not EXclusive and everyone is welcome to call Madison home.
